FALL PRODUCTION "PETER PAN"

"Peter Pan" was dramatized by FHS students for the 11th annual Children's Theatre Production under the direction of Ms. Elaine Smart. The hard-working crew set the stage to enhance Never-never Land, with exquisite lighting and scenery. The actors varied between Captain Hook and his pirates, dancing animals, an authentic Henny Penny Indian tribe, the Darling Family and Peter Pan with his Lost Boys. The tremendous talent kept "children" young and old on the edge of their seats as Peter Pan defeated the pirates saving the children and Lost Boys. Wendy, John, Michael, and the Lost Boys were joyously reunited with the Darling family. The play closed on a happy note, as many years later Wendy's daughter Jane departs for Never-never Land with the ageless Peter Pan.

4. War between the Indians and the Lost Boys, with Tootles in between. 5. Dance of the Indians and the Lost Boys.

HOMECOMING WIN BRIGHTENS DANCE

Despite a "Sea of Mud," a Trojan shut-out over Washington brought many happy grins to the dance Friday night. Following the theme, "Moments of Awareness" the student council and helpers spent all day working on the decorations in the gym. By the end of the day the gym was transformed into a beautiful ballroom.

In the midst of the dance Mr. Brookhart introduced Queen Terri Childs and her court, escorted by senior members of the football team. After introducing the Queen and candidates their escorts led their candidates in the Grand March.

For the rest of the evening the music of "Morning Glory" from Dayton, Iowa, filled the gym with hours of dancing and reminiscing by students and guests.

CONTEST GROUPS EARN I RATINGS

Competition between three one-act plays, under student direction, resulted in "She Stoops to Conquer" as Fairfield's representative to district competition in Ottumwa. It later traveled to state competition where it received a Division 1 rating. The winning play was a cutting of Oliver Goldsmith's "English Comedy of Manners," a satire on the marriage practices of the 18th century.

Fairfield's first choral reading entry, "The Kallyope Yell," earned Division 1 rating at both district and state competitions. A duet acting team of Mickey Tuck and Lugene Hoskins earned Division 1 ratings with their piece, "Lemonade," a modern drama of two elderly women's fantasies. A second team of Bill Heilkamp and Cy Winters performed "Criss-Cross," a five minute passion play, receiving a Division II rating at district competition.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS TELL EXPERIENCES

Last summer, I participated in a Rotary exchange program with Sweden. Before I went there, my Swedish brother, Mats Lagerstedt spent a month in Fairfield. On July 17, Mats and I flew to Copenhagen, Denmark, after which I flew on to Gothenburg, Sweden, for a three day orientation. There, I was hosted by the local Rotary Club, and was given a brief class on the history and customs of Sweden.

From Gothenburg, I traveled by train to Bastad where I was met by Mat's family. Mat's father owns a summer cottage along the strait between the Baltic Sea and the North Sea near Bastad, so I spent most of my time there. The trip gave me a better appreciation for the United States.

-Ken Hovey

Last summer I had the opportunity to go to Belgium with Youth for Understanding. After travelling two days, I arrived at my home in the small town of Olen. My father, Jozef Cellers, is a jeweler and his wife Maria helps in the shop, since it is part of the house. I had four brothers, Ludwig, Robert, Paul and Walther and a sister, Lutgart.

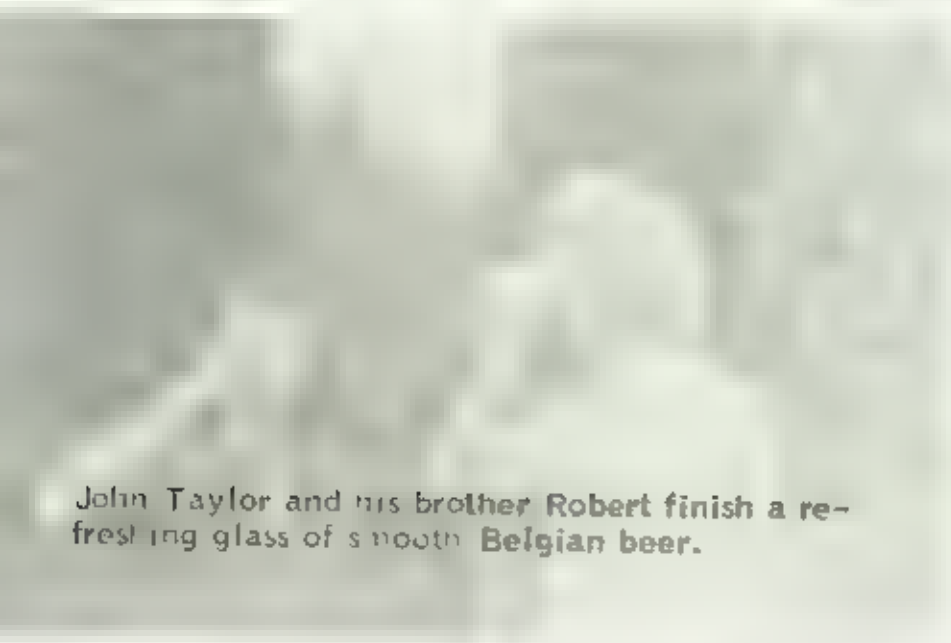

A large part of my time was spent travelling and visiting large cities of Northern Europe including London, Amsterdam, Antwerp, and Brussels. My favorite city was Bruges because it has remained in a near perfect Medieval style.

My summer was an indescribable experience that I would never trade for anything.

-John Taylor

In the Philippines, there is something for everyone. For the city lover, Manila and vicinity offers an endless row of night clubs and concerts, and for the nature lover, the provinces are full of beautiful rice terraces, mountains, forests, and of course the ocean.

Jeans dominate the scene. At school, there is a uniform so that I never have to worry about what I'm going to wear tomorrow. The Filipinos embrace the Americans and roll out the welcome mat for us. To experience the friendliness of these people is something I'll never forget.

-Kevin Doyle

My summer as an AFS student was one of many memorable experiences. I arrived in San Jose on June 19 with the 54 other AFS'ers and departed for the 4-day orientation site. I spent one month with my first family learning Spanish, attending classes 7 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., spending a weekend at a Pacific beach, and meeting the President of Costa Rica at the 4th of July picnic held at the U.S. Ambassador's home. I spent a month and a half with my second family with whom I took an exciting trip to Irazu, an active volcano.

THREE EXCHANGE VISITORS REFLECT

Well, I have, in a short time a lot of friends here in America and I am surprised that my American friends are as nice for me as my Brazilian friends who I knew all of my life.

I really do love Americans and this country is special for me as much as Brazil.

The time is going so fast and I don't want to go back home right now.
Nando

I like the school system and the subjects. I like to watch American football. I like everything (food) except peanut nut butter. In Mexico the food is more spicy. I like the snow, not the humidity. I most like here the people. They are very frank. I was a member of the Jubilation Singers.

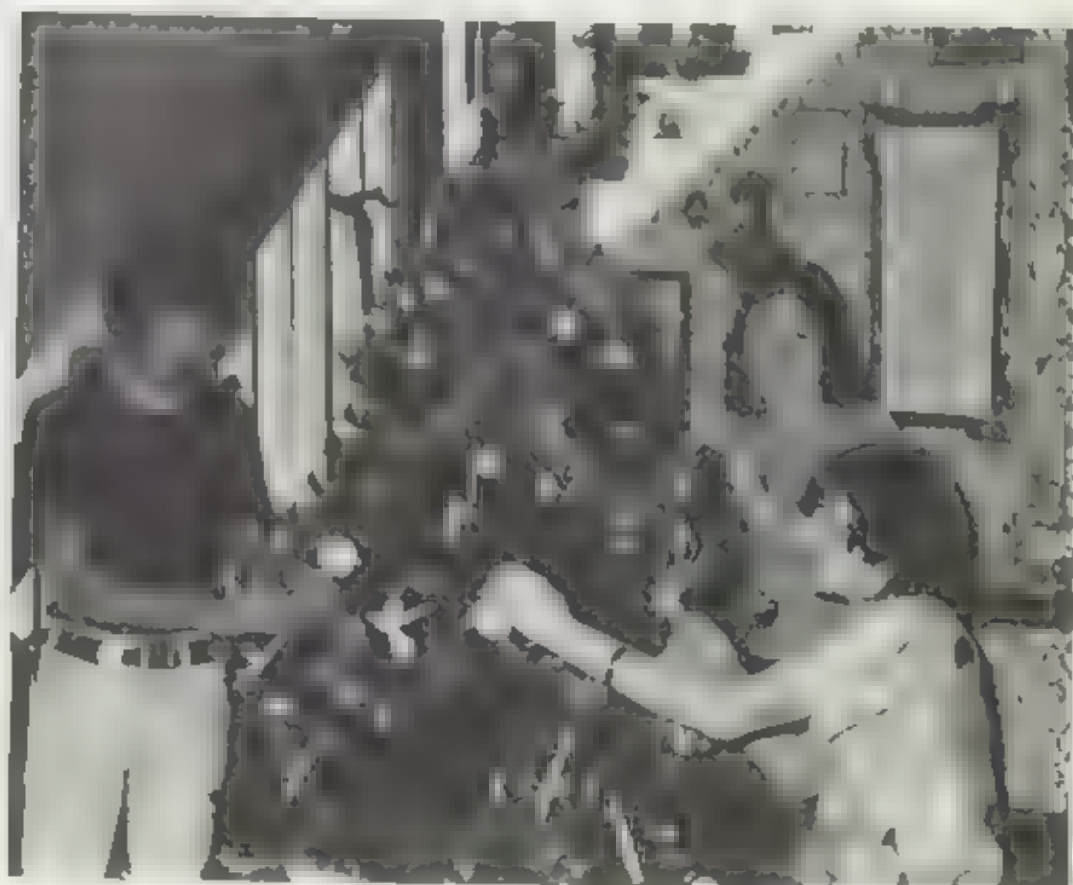

I have been to these places with the Grabers: Grand Canyon, Yellowstone National Park, and Niagra Falls. I think your country is very beautiful.
Ernesto

I like the school; the teachers are very nice to me. I like basketball games and bowling. I like to sing. I like all the seasons, especially fall. I am looking forward to spring. I really love snow, homemade pies, hamburgers, pizza, and American coffee. My favorite is fried chicken. I want to see as much as possible as this is my first and last time I will.

Angella

1. Nando displays his ever present good humor. 2. Fernando Sales, AFS student, from Cataguases, Brazil, Angella Roura, Rotary Student from Patras, Greece, Ernesto Aldama, from Cordoba, Mexico. 3. Reading newspapers helps keep Ernesto up to date on happenings in Mexico. 4. Ernesto, Angella, and Nando enjoy their first snowfight. 5. Both Nando and Angella enjoy frequent trips to the library. 6. A strong bond of friendships is formed among the three visitors to FHS. 7. A Christmas party for the three results in redecorating the Christmas tree.

ACADEMICS

SOCIAL STUDIES STUDENTS TEMPER EDUCATION WITH EXPERIENCE

History III

We've been doing simulations. In these simulations we learn by experiencing what the people of that time period experienced.

-Kevin Smith

Government

First quarter we learned about the civics of our own government and how it applied to us.

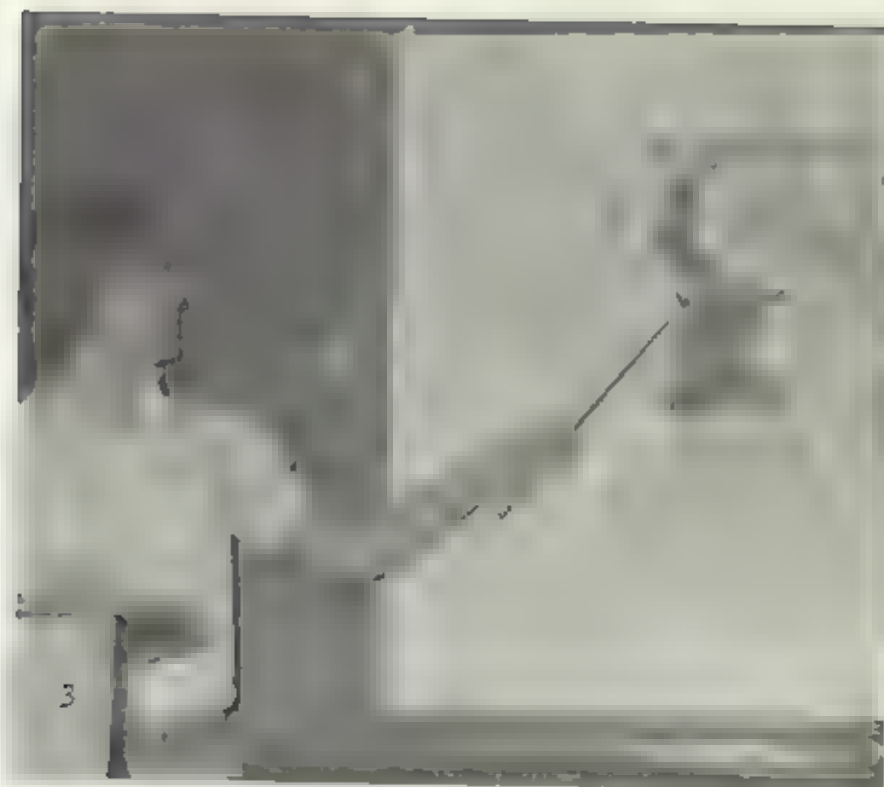

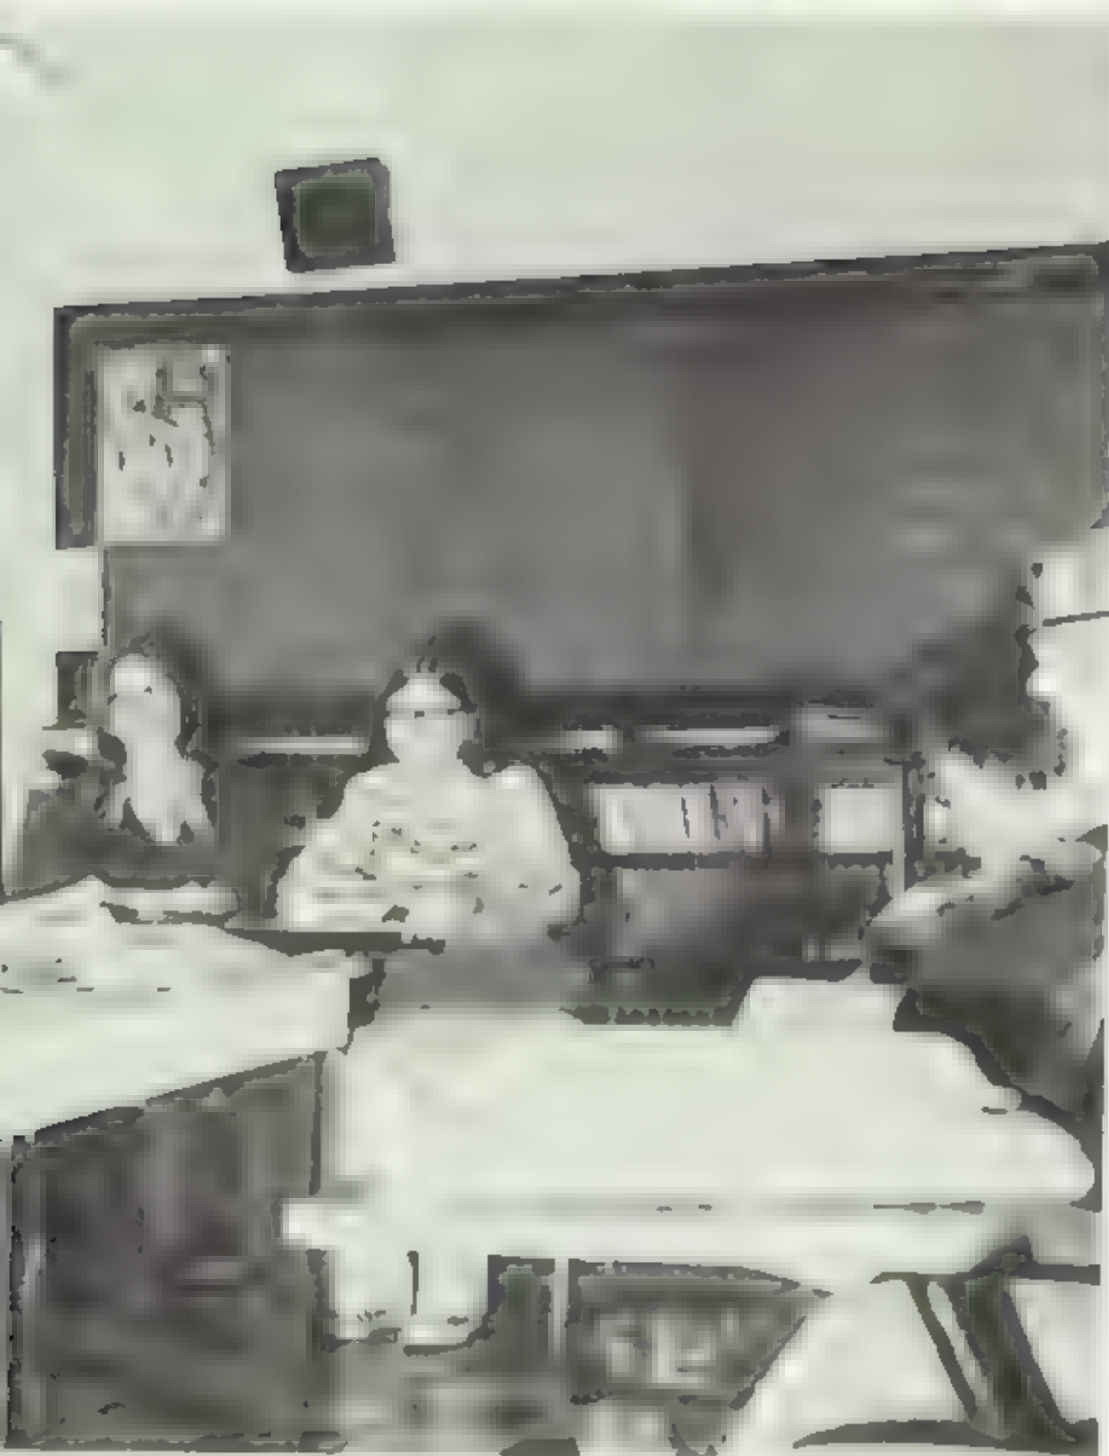

-Steve Gerleman

Anthropology

I am interested in that field. We've been studying the societies and lifestyles of primitive tribes.

-Jay Koch

1. Capi Wahrer finds that reading is necessary in Government class. 2. Informal discussions in History III hold Debbie Kaufman's attention. 3. The organization of the Senate is the topic of discussion in Mr. Heald's 5th hour class.

ENGLISH COURSES PROVIDE VARIETY

Short Story

We read a lot of short stories, and we have a lot of writing and discussions. It gives us an opportunity to tutor grade school classes.

-Mickey Tuck

English Lit.

We've been studying the Shakespearian plays of HAMLET and MACBETH.

-Dave Huff

Forensics

We've been doing student senate bills and speech work, getting ready for contest.

-Terry Oosthoek

American Lit.

I would have enjoyed the course more if we had done more reading, less analysis and covered more recent authors.

-Ken Hovey

1. Student Senate presents legislation in Forensics class, 2. Linda Hadley and Sonja Parcell lead discussion on a short story in sophomore English, 3. Diana Kirkpatrick makes use of a visual aid in her speech on family tradition.

SPANISH IV ADDED TO THE CURRICULUM

Spanish

First year Spanish enticed me. Senora Nelson is a very good teacher. We taught elementary and Jr. High students.

Phil Brobston

Spanish class is the most liberal class thanks to Ms. Nelson. People aren't afraid to express themselves.

Dan Davis

Ms. Nelson conducts the class in such a way that we all have fun while learning. For some examples of this we have trials, Doctors Office, and Markets, the main difference in Spanish II and many other classes is that it is fun and interesting. Ms. Nelson makes it this way by teaching cultures of other countries which she isn't even required to do.

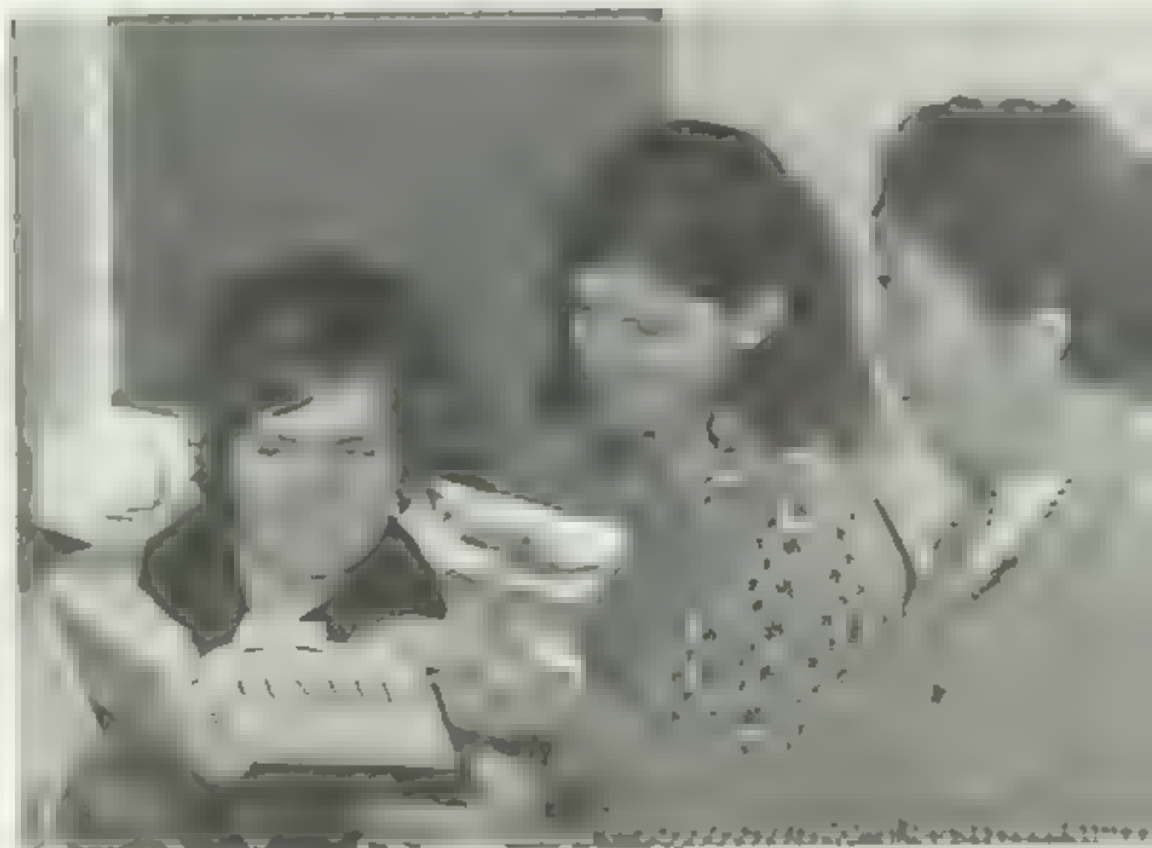

Rod Sprouse

French

Each Friday we are teaching the 3rd graders at Washington school, and we are also studying French culture.

Ron Ridgeway

The French class is easy and interesting. The class is presented in such a way as to let you work at your own rate, which makes it easier to understand.

Ron Ogden.

1. Phil Brobston and Stan Plum listen to the works of the Spanish poet Garcia Lorca. 2. French II students work on an individual basis with Ms. Brown and each other. 3. Marian Schultz and Darla Kann confer with Ms. Nelson on a particular point in the Spanish text.

MUSIC AND ART EMPHASIZE CREATIVITY

Music

Through the music appreciation course I not only learned to know and recognize different styles of music but I was able to gain a greater understanding of music itself.

Scott VanderHamm

Art

Art II involves creating things that can be useful for everyday life. A student can take as long as he wants for each project providing Mr. Glocke approves of your subject. This is a wide field and fun to see what you can come up with.

Phil Bentley

We get a chance to create and do our own thing. It's a freedom course so we can express ourselves.

Linda Boughner

There's no limit to what you can do. Every and anything is available.
Jeff Meyers

1. Patience and imagination are the key, as Pam Simpson displays. 2. The value of pitch and careful listening is stressed in the music appreciation class. 3. Janet Stahlberg applies paint with careful precision.

SCIENCE STUDENTS FIND ENJOYMENT IN LABS

Physics-Chemistry

We've done experiments in motion and Astronomy. We have thought about having a star-gazing party.

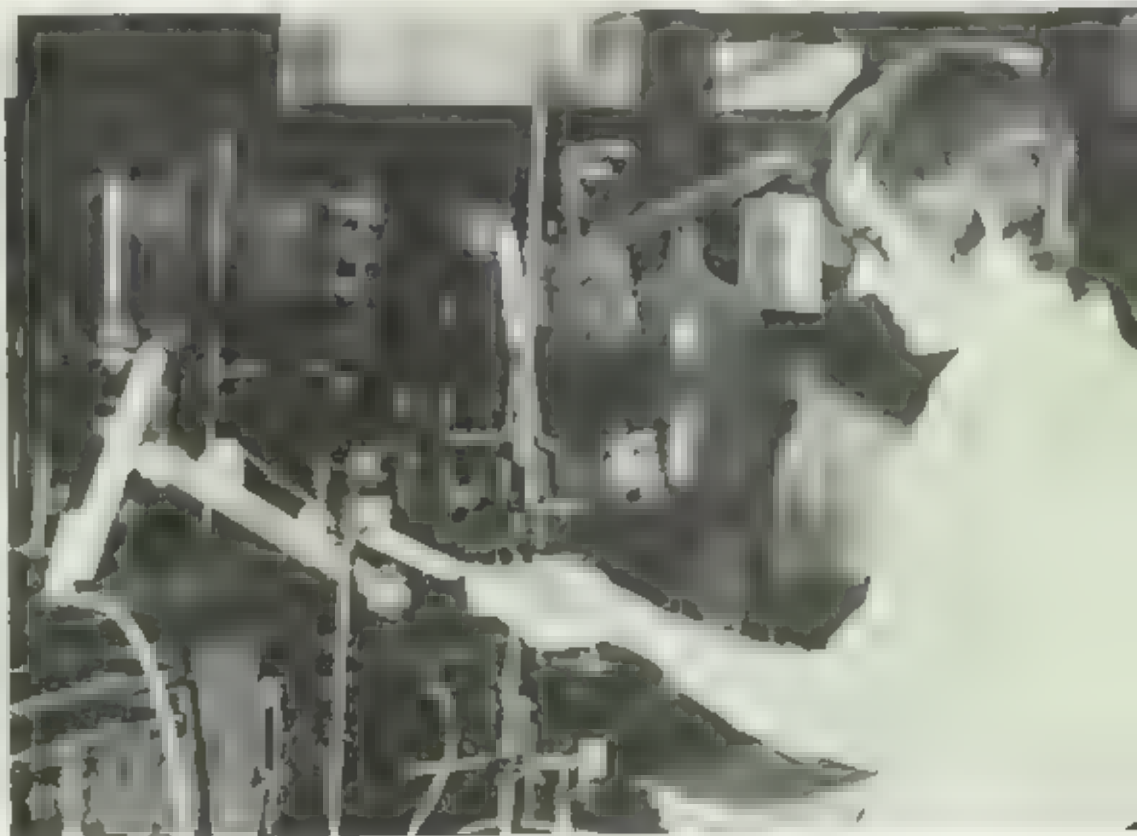

-Dan Konrady

It's an interesting course that is practical and challenging.

-Tom Graber

I thought Physics would be interesting and a good course that could show individualism.

-Debbie Shriver

Anatomy

We've covered about everything, all the organs and systems. We're into nutrition. Next we get to dissect a fetal pig.

-Laura Simpson

I took anatomy so I could learn about the human body and the disorders and causes. I can find out what's wrong with myself.

-Kathy Stanley

1. Kay Wagner and Paula Leacox amuse themselves conducting a chemistry lab. 2. An experiment in a 57 minute period makes speed a necessity. 3. Jon Billingsley ponders the theory of retrograde motion.

SHOP OFFERS COED CLASSES

In electronics class, I've been mostly putting together a radio. We learn the basics about the radio and electricity.

-Monte Symmonds

I like to make the things in shop.

-Jerry Leathers

I think it prepares you for the future more than the regular classes.

-Dave Graber

I can use electronics because I'm considering it to be my career.

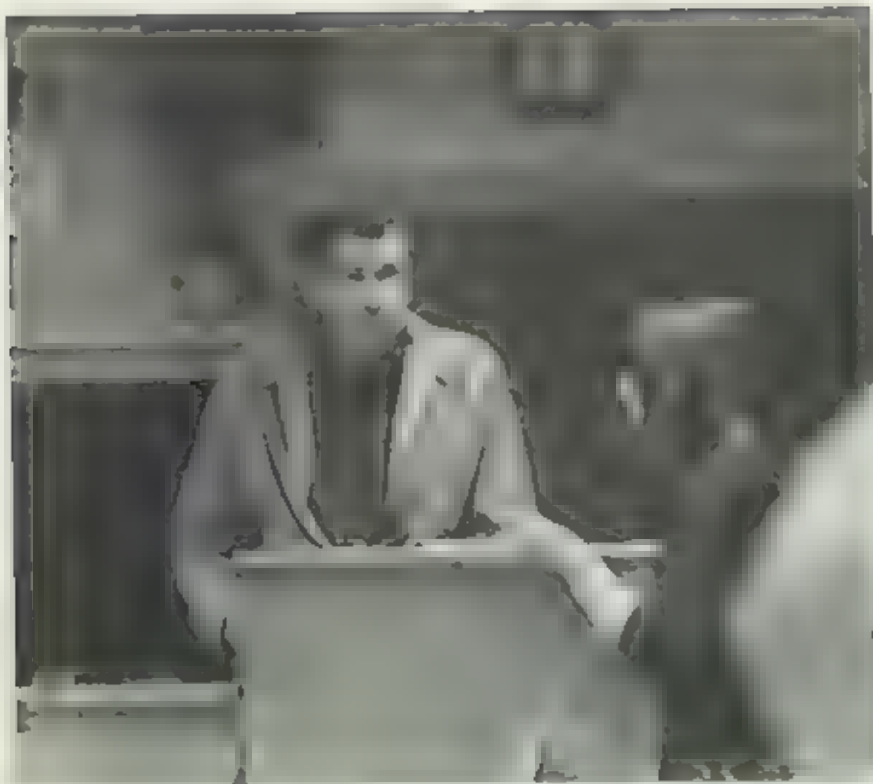

-John Hewitt

I wanted to learn a little bit about everything.

-Mike Lee

1. Gail Thomas admires handiwork on finished table.
2. Becky Horton and Terri Childs learn to cast metal in shop. 3. Instructor Paul Franklin assists Sam Owens in a project.

COE AND OE GIVE UNIQUE TRAINING

OE is a real learning experience, because you can actually know how it is to have responsibilities of a job.

-Mona Fritts

OE is a great experience, because you are given a responsibility of helping run an office. If I had to choose my classes all over again, I would still sign up for OE.

-Dixie Davisson

Experience is a valuable possession. OE has given me a great deal of experience. I've grown in many ways and gained a lot of confidence in myself.

-Connie Hartman

We are learning sales techniques and handling customers properly. We learn this in the classroom and on the jobs. Jobs range from grocery stores to carpentry work.

-Jim Bozarth

We learn how to serve the public, get along with people, and work with the management.

-Rick Porter

We mostly learn job procedures and how to get along with people.

-Darrel Bisgard

1. Early morning class at 7:30 shows its effects on Mr. Wells and Becky Horton. 2. Cindy Wymer attempts to entertain a young charge at the Day Care Center. 3. Mike Bartruff makes a connection for a caller at the United Telephone office. 4. Sherri Dodds manhandles papers working for the Fairfield Daily Ledger. 5. Stocking shelves is a never ending chore for Terry Buford, at work at Hy Vee. 6. Driving the truck is one of many of Rick Paul's jobs at Jefco.

BACHELORS INVADE HOME EC TERRITORY

Housing and Interiors

"All the different field trips make the class more interesting. That, combined with the projects, make what we learned easier to apply."

Diana Richardson

I took the course because I thought I would benefit from it later on in life. I learned quite a bit.

Debi Findlay

Foods and Nutrition

I took foods and nutrition because I wanted to learn how to cook alot of things like baked alaska and cheeseburger pie. The most fun I think was eating everybodys food after they made it.

Debbie Stutzman

1. Joan Wolfe browses through accessories during "Furniture Fair." 2. Student teacher Miss Beard supervises a home ec. quiz. 3 Note taking is essential in Home Ec. classes.

VO AG APPLIES FARM TECHNIQUES

I thought I would get a lot out of it because I'm going to be a farmer. I thought they taught a lot of stuff, but they could have more on the farm experience. I think it helped me.

Jim Van Winkle

It combines all the studies of regular school into class and it teaches us how to use them wisely.

Bill Hammes

Since I live on a farm, it would help me learn the operations of the farm better. Electricity helped me a lot.

Ron Roland

A lot of things we do in Vo Ag are basic things anyone should know such as electricity, small engines, and animal reproduction.

Rikki Parcell

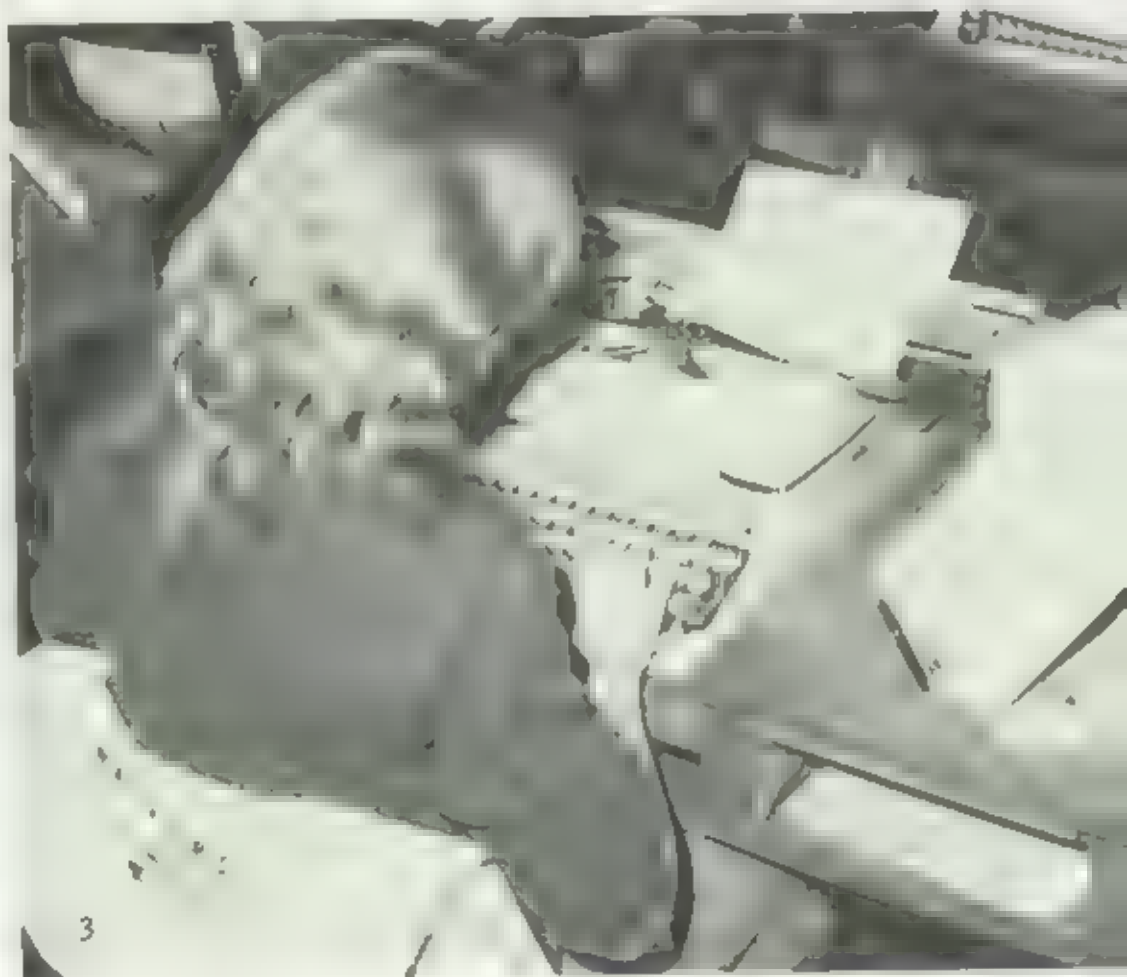

1. Steve Keller and Greg Fritz use a hammer and punch on metal work. 2. Dan Buch and Doug Hipp work on a wood project for use on the farm. 3. Ron Lamansky and Steve Burnett struggle with machinery repair in the Vo. Ag. building.

SECRETARIAL SKILLS EMPHASIZED IN BUSINESS CAREER

Secretarial
We are doing machines such as the electronic calculator, full key, printing calculator, 10-key adding machine, etc. We are also doing filing, duplication, transcription, from a dictaphone, spelling, vocabulary proofreading, and key punch. It will help me later on in a job.
-Vicky Porter

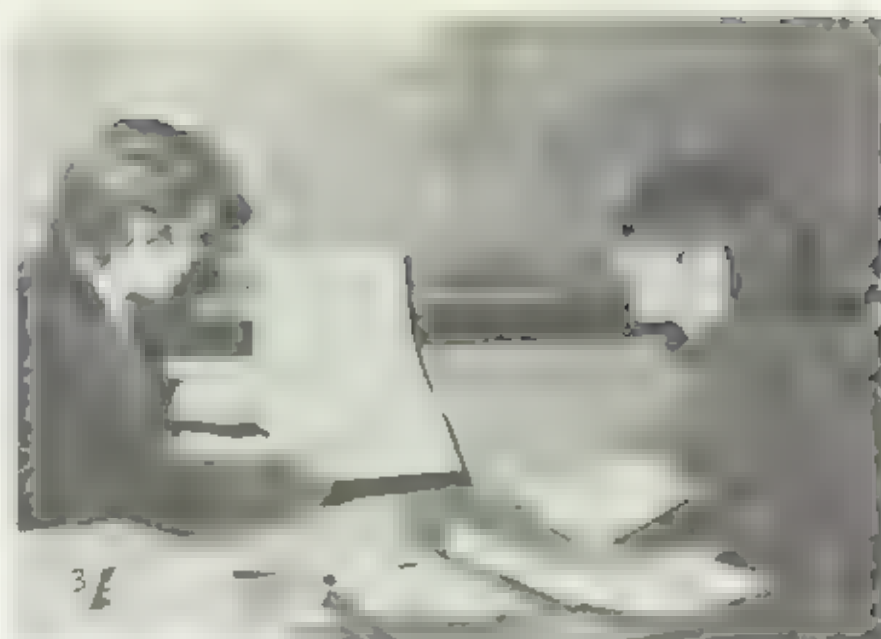

Typing
In Typing III we are learning how to fill out forms for a job in a secretarial career.
-Joan Wolfe

Typing II was very interesting. It teaches you a lot for when you have a job as a secretary. I learned a lot in the course and I think students should take this course.
-Nancy Vorhies

Business Math
Business Math is a good course to take if you want to go into a business. So if you like math take this course.
-Carolyn Cavin

1. Girls are sometimes outnumbered in Typing I classes. 2. Carolyn Diers and Dave Graber make use of an electronic calculator in bookkeeping class. 3. Proper posture and control are emphasized at the typewriter.

COURTROOM PLAYS ENLIVEN BUS. LAW

I thought it had something to do with business but it doesn't really. In business law, you learn the basic rules of life. You learn about torts and crimes.

-Jon Franklin

I took this course to help me understand what rights I have and where I could go to find help in legal matters. We read a lot of plays. I enjoyed INHERIT THE WIND and CASE OF LIBEL. The plays made legal matters clearer.

-Erlayne Gillaspie

I think it's a very helpful course. I took it because I thought it would help me after I got out of school.

-Dave Hall

1. Prosecutor John Hewitt argues a point of order with His Honor Vic Wiles as Susan Brereton, the frightened witness, looks on. 2. The judge pronounces sentence upon the defendant in his most dictatorial voice. 3. Bob Hipp, Attorney-at-Law, instructs his client Ralph Hickenbottom to sign on the dotted line.

PRE CALCULUS IS NEW MATH COURSE

Calculus enables the student to figure out the hardest problems in the simplest manner.

-Tim Hellkamp

It's a take off from Algebra II and Geometry. It gives them further definition. I thought it would help me in my math in college.

-Marian Schultz

Geometry is a useful course if you plan to be an engineer. It's a lot of work but can be fun at times.

-Jim Adam

Algebra II is probably one of the harder classes offered at FHS, and I think if the right approach is taken it can be very beneficial in the future.

-Larry Holmes

1. Quiet desperation is the trademark of a Math Analysis class. 2. Jon Billingsley and Brad Berg find time for conversation in class. 3. Show that $x-3$ is a multiple factor of the polynomial $3x^4 - 37x^3 + 147x^2 - 377x + 54$.

DRIVERS' ED STUDENTS COMPLETE COURSE WITH ONLY MINOR MISHAPS

I like it because it is so informal.
Jeff Abbey

Class is kind of boring, but I like to drive. Mr. Justmann always looks like he's not watching you, but you know he was when the break goes on.
Amelia Sloca

Drivers' Ed is pretty easy except the hardest thing is when older people who have their license, Pull out in front of you.

Pam McGuire

Drivers' Ed is my favorite subject because its always relaxed and you say what you think. When you drive at least you accomplish something. Even if its bad, you can say, "I did it".
-Sandy Pacha

1. Patrolman Roy Eubanks delivers his semi-annual lecture on highway safety to Driver' Ed. classes. 2. Mr. Justmann comes to the harsh realization that collision insurance is a must for Driver's Ed. cars. 3. Debbie Ledger studies a manual on auto Insurance.

WIDE VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES IN PHYS ED

The students have a greater opportunity to participate in more areas of athletics.
DeeAnn Simmons

I don't like First Aid. It's fine to know but I don't like to learn it. I would much rather learn Gymnastics any day. If they think they're going to get me to give somebody else artificial respiration... they've flipped.

Sonja Parcell

I like the switch because I never liked gymnastics. You always need 1st Aid in any situation so I think it's better we're taught 1st Aid.

Donna Keller

I enjoy both, but I believe I would prefer golf over wrestling.

David Wilson

1. Doug Stutzman and Ken Baker pursue that all-elusive ball. 2. Dan Davis reflects mixed emotions as to the game of volleyball. 3. Tom Baker zeroes in on a crucial free throw.

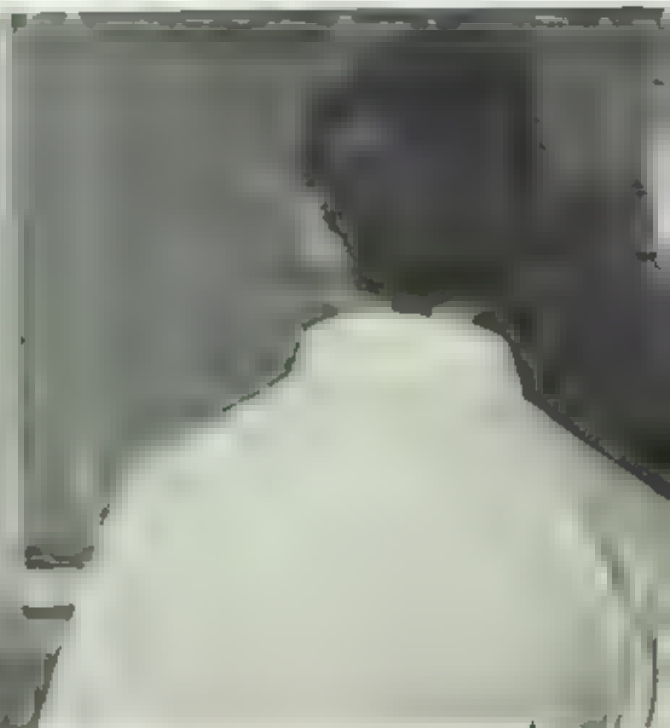

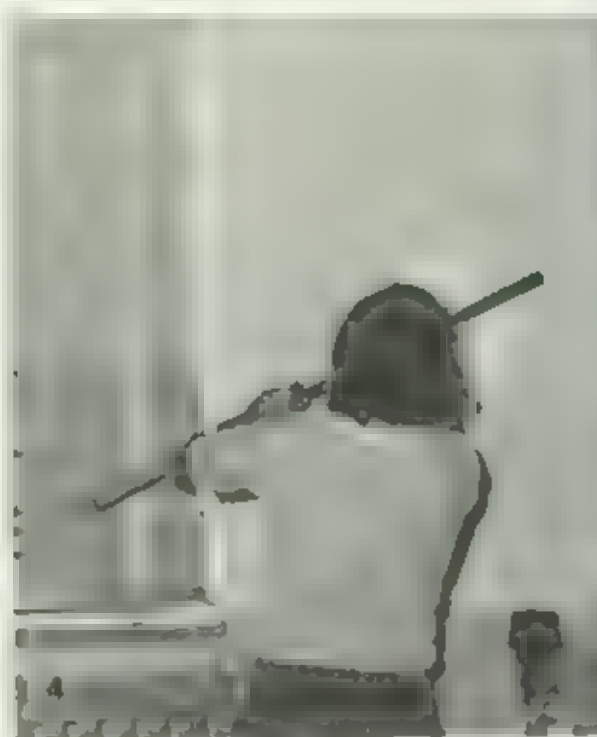

SOMETIMES CREATING CAN BE THE GREATEST JOY OF ALL

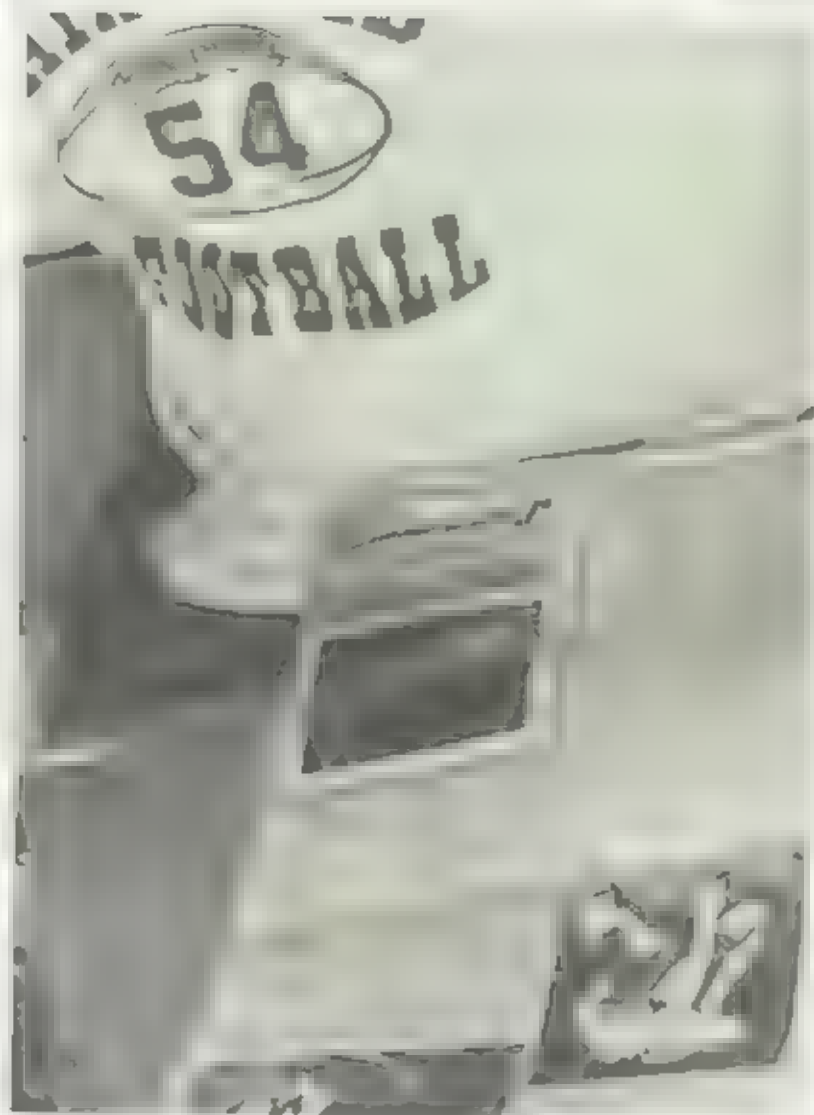

1. Ron Litton intently watches as his metal project rapidly takes shape, 2. Janet Czerwinski, Walt Cannon and Bob Randall are obviously engrossed with something on that sheet of paper, 3. Physics class is a time for writing up last-minute experiments, 4. Linda Czerwinski receives aid from Mr. Franklin on her Home Mechanics project.

1. Mr. McHone supplies History class with the latest sports scores. 2. Students in Chemistry classes get a first hand look at the Energy Crisis. 3. Discussion groups live a period for some people. 4. Jim Smith and Ken Hovey measure the diameter of the moon in a Physics experiment. 5. Denise Bagby refinishes a desk for the Home Mechanics project. 6. Torch Club member Mike Engwall diligently researches a Math Analysis assignment.

TORCH CLUB TAPS II NEW INITIATES

The National Honor Society or Torch Club recognizes high school students who are outstanding in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Seniors were initiated in a fall Jonathon Livingston Seagull ceremony, and both seniors and juniors were selected for the spring initiation.

Only five per cent of the junior class can be initiated in the spring, ten per cent can be members in the fall, and up to fifteen per cent of the class can belong after the spring initiation. Members take turns putting up the school calendar and the bulletin board outside the principal's office.

Ms. Norma Johnson is Torch Club adviser.

QUILL AND SCROLL SELECTS MEMBERS

Quill and Scroll, the national honorary journalism society, initiated nine new members at an April Fools Day dinner at the Stever House. Members must be in the upper third of their class, have done superior work in some phase of journalism, and be recommended by an adviser. Ms. Marker and Ms. Pettit were the sponsors.

1. ROW 1: P. Leacox, M. McDowell, S. Flinspach, L. Brown, M. Rauscher, Sec. ROW 2: S. Vander Hamm, Treas.; B. Stover, Vice Pres., J. Taylor, Pres. 2. Scott puts up the Torch Club bulletin board. 3. New Initiates; ROW 1: P. Mineart, H. Harward, D. Shriver, K. Wagner, J. Koch; ROW 2: G. Hatch, D. Hall, D. Frieberg, M. Engwall, J. Roach, T. Graber. 4. Quill & Scroll officers: M. Shultz, Pres.; L. Teeter, Sec.; B. Stover, Vice Pres.; D. Bell, Treas. 5. New members: S. Flinspach, N. Kemp, C. Cathey, C. Timon, E. Gillaspie, D. Kann, J. Kitch, J. Mineart, L. Brown.

SPEAKERS ENJOY SUCCESSFUL YEAR

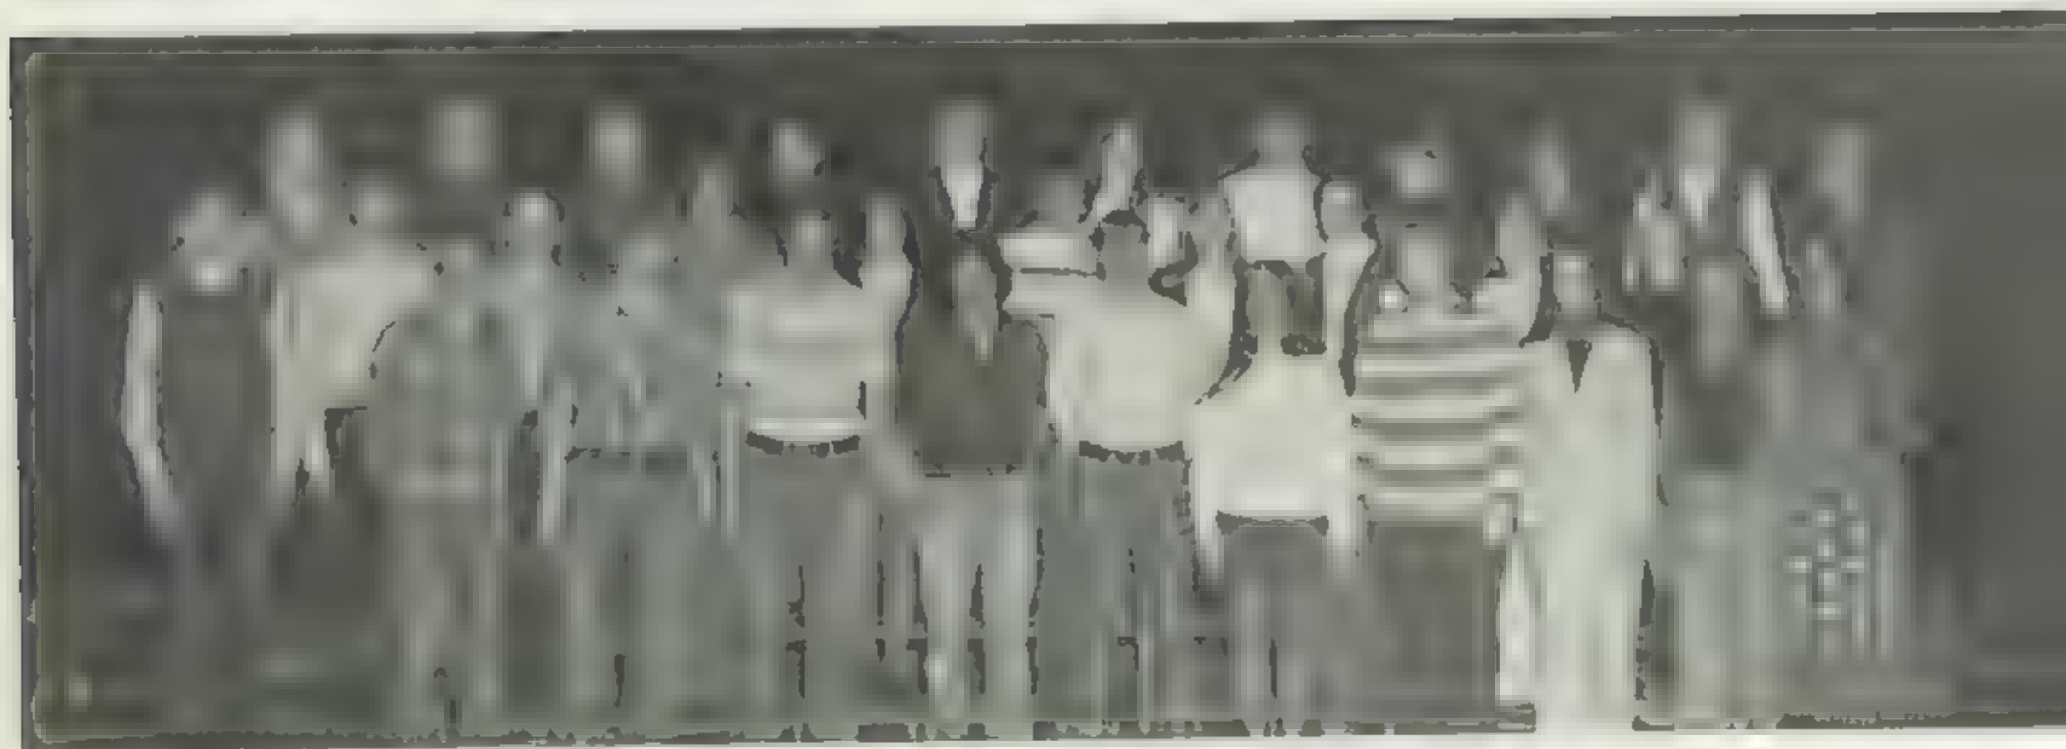

Speakers' Club, an organization to build interest in communication and encourage contest participation, continued to render excellent community and school service. The club sponsors the weekly broadcast of the Voice of FHS on KMCD, selects an announcer for the school P.A. system, and provides announcers for all sports events.

For the fourth year, Fairfield hosted the Iowa High School Speech Association State Contest and participated in the Iowa Forensic League Contest. A Fall initiation dinner and Spring picnic rounded out the years activities.

1. Terry Hayes announces at a game. 2. Officers, L. TO R.: T. Graber, treas.; M. Rauscher, sec.; S. Egli, v.p.; B. Stover, pres. 3. Speakers' Club Banquet. 4. Myron Gookin shows his finesse with the brush on Mark Kistler's mop. 5. Susie Egli adds realism to her speech. 6. Brad Stover reads the announcements. 7. John Taylor tries his hand at melodrama. 8. Dennis Doyle carries on his one-man banana race for initiation.

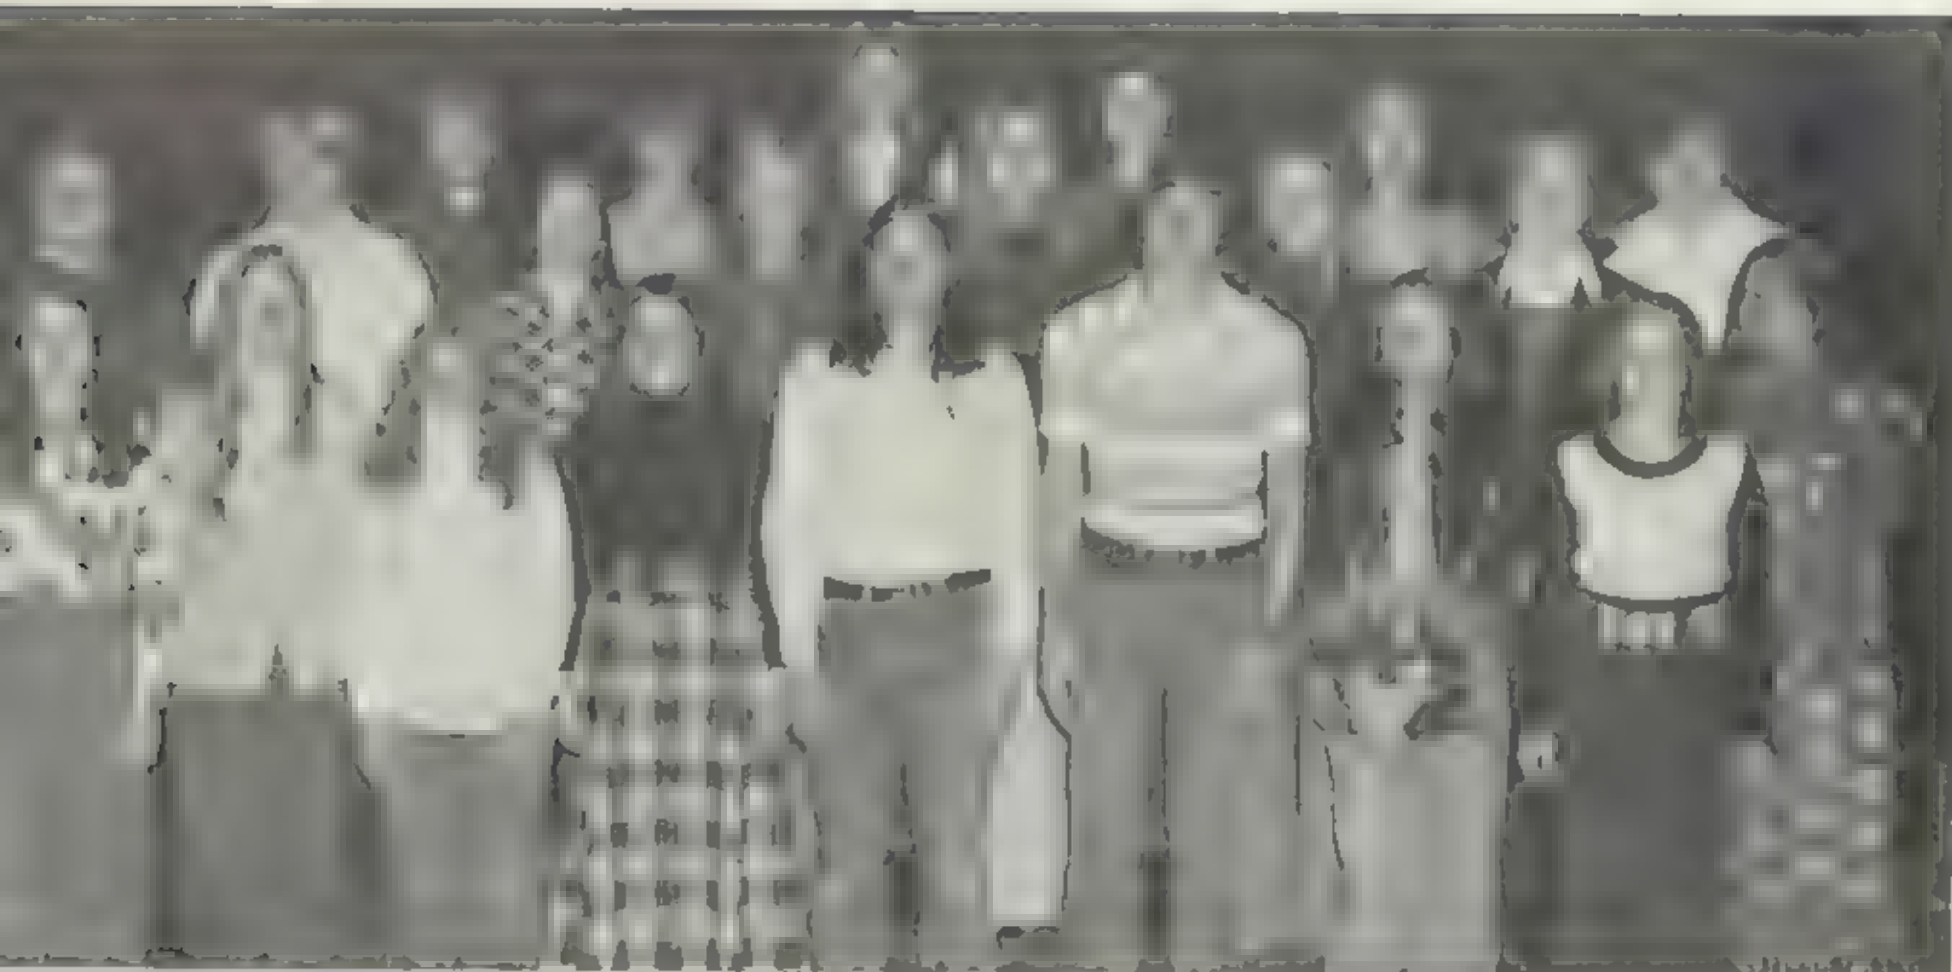

1. Quill editors, Neal Kemp and Linda Teeter, work on layouts for the coming deadline. 2. FRONT ROW, L. TO R.: M. Edmund, J. Taylor, B. Stover, S. VanderHamm, N. Kemp, L. Teeter, E. Gillaspie, K. Roth, J. Clements, J. Edgeton, C. Sasseen, P. Hollander, M. Pettit, S. Flinspach. 3. Planning a yearbook takes neat layouts, good pictures and a great deal of thought.

74 SPRING QUILL ADDS SUPPLEMENT

Renovations by the editors of the '74 Quill allowed for Spring delivery of the yearbook with the addition of a supplement mailed to students during the Summer. The supplement included Speech Contest, Music Contest, Spring Sports, Spring Play, Prom, Baccalaureate, and Graduation. Support for the QUILL was high this year as 79% of the student body purchased a yearbook.

1. ROW 1: C. Egli, L. Coop, J. Mineart, D. Richardson, D. Bell, B. Stover, A. Stoll, J. Avaux; ROW 2: J. Wolfe, M. Simmons, L. Brown, D. Sherwood, J. Kitch, K. Wagner, M. Rauscher, V. Roettger; ROW 3: S. Flinspach, M. O'Connor, M. Pettit, D. Kann, J. McIntire, M. Schultz. 2. Editors Dave Bell and Diane Richardson survey a recent edition. 3. NEWSPAPER STAFF RECEIVES HONORS

TROY BANNER, the bi-weekly school paper published in the FAIRFIELD LEDGER, earned an All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association for the fourteenth consecutive semester. This lent proof that the organization's goal, publishing a professional newspaper, was being achieved. Staff members met on Monday during activity period and on alternate Monday mornings. The eight a.m. work sessions were enlivened with breakfast rolls donated by the staffers.

TROYETTES SERVE SPORTS BANQUETS

Girls with a B average are eligible for membership in the Troyettes.

Troyettes sold concessions at home football games and winter sports activities. Profits were used to finance the two annual athletic banquets.

To boost school spirit, the Troyettes performed a skit satirizing "Sleeping Beauty" at the Homecoming pep rally.

Troyettes changed their constitution this year. Instead of seven girls from each class, there were 10 seniors, 7 juniors, and 4 sophomores.

LETTERCLUB AIDS IN LOCAL PROJECTS

Letter Club is designed to promote interest in athletics and to perform school and community activities. Their community projects included bagging candy for the Rotary Club's annual Christmas Parade, helping at the Booster Club Auction, and collecting money for the Christmas telethon. At school they supervised football games and helped at other sporting events.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes attended a two week camp at Estes Park, Colorado. This organization is for students who take part in athletics and have a broad mind about Christianity.

NUMEROUS CHANGES ARE MADE IN GRA

GRA, the Girls' Recreation Association, made several changes this year. The members no longer met on separate nights, but met together on Monday evenings in the Girls' Gym. This change was necessary because of the added winter sports which needed more practice room after school. Co-Ed Badminton was added to the roster this year. It turned out to be a popular choice with both the girls and their partners. The activities in GRA corresponded with the activities in gym class at the time, which ranged from bowling to flag football. Points are taken and at the end of the year girls with enough points receive either a pin or a letter.

IMPROVEMENT IS SHUTTERBUGS' AIM

Members of Camera Club, playfully known as the "Shutterbugs," set as their goal improvement of their skill in processing and developing photographs. Members spent many study halls, activity periods and evenings in the dark room developing their skill as well as pictures.

Money for developing equipment and other necessary items was raised through dues. Ms. Lowell is the club sponsor.

1. Mike Floy focuses the enlarger in preparation for printing his own photographs. 2. Female photographers Maggi Hall and Linda Hadley work in the darkroom under their sponsor Ms. Lowell. 3. Members: E. Arndt, L. Hadley, S. Owens, D. Doggett, R. Yardley, Pres., M. Floy, M. Hall, R. Burke. 4. Dennis Doggett operates a buffer during the redecoration process of the Camera Club darkroom.

NEW CONSTITUTION REORGANIZES S.C.

Many changes took place in FHS' student government this year.

This was the last year for elected homeroom representatives making it possible for one homeroom to have more than one member in Student Council. This change came about by the new constitution.

Instead of selling the usual items for fundraising projects, council members collected newspapers and sold them by the ton for recycling. This provided money for the Homecoming Dance.

In addition to sponsoring the Homecoming Dance, they also hosted the Christmas Talent Show and several pep assemblies.

SOPHS IMPROVE SINGING SKILLS

Preparing for Senior Choir, Sophomore Choir learned the basic techniques needed for good singing, always striving towards perfection. Music from the Baroque period to today's contemporary styles filled their bi-weekly rehearsals. The small group appeared successfully with the other groups at both the Winter and Spring Concerts.

CHOIR IMPROVES MUSICAL STYLE

Mastering the singing technique of periods from early Baroque to today's contemporary style was the main goal for senior choir. Mr. Goodell had something new in store for members at every rehearsal, giving them a vast musical repertoire.

Choir members successfully performed at both winter and spring concerts. Highlights of the year included performing selections with the band at the January band concert and taking part in the S.E. 7 Conference choir festival in Ft. Madison.

Four choir members were selected to attend the All-State Music Festival in Ames over Thanksgiving. They were Mary Rauscher, Dave Huff, Chris Davis and Jim Edgeton.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR FOR SMALL GROUPS

Numerous concert appearances sparked another successful year for the Chamber Singers. The 18 member group was involved in various local activities and showed a high degree of enthusiasm and versatility throughout the year.

Girls' Glee Club, although small in quantity, performed successfully at both concerts along with the other musical groups. The club is open to any girl interested in meeting bi-weekly to improve singing abilities.

FBLA ENCOURAGES FUTURE LEADERS

FBLA, the Future Business Leaders of America, had over 70 members during its second year at FHS. Regular meetings featured guest speakers and planning money-making projects.

To enhance the Christmas season members sold novelty gift items in December. The club also hosted the KIOA High Hoopers game against the faculty and the Valentine's Day 50's dance.

Members participated in the State Business Leadership Conference Contest held in Cedar Falls, April 18-20. In the preceding year Fairfield had finished fourth in the state.

OEA STRIVES TO IMPROVE SKILLS FOR ITS MEMBERS

Office Education Association is the organizational continuation of OE. The Club sponsored a state skills contest. Sue Griffin, Connie Hartman, Carol Janka, and Kathy Payne represented Fairfield there.

The purpose of this club, according to Ms. Linda Heard, sponsor, was "improvement in career skills and leadership."

CHEERS ENLIVEN SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Fairfield High School cheerleaders have been busy this year building the school's spirit. They worked hard to get this accomplished by arranging pep assemblies, cheering at athletic events, decorating the halls with posters and participating in Homecoming activities.

Both cheer squads were larger this year with 12 girls in each. This enabled them to break down into 3 groups of 4 when the winter sports came. The entire squad did cheer at all football games.

For financial projects the girls sold the traditional Homecoming buttons, tape race, and had a dunking booth at the AG show.

POM-POM GIRLS AUGMENT SPIRIT

Pom-Pom Girls have added their enthusiasm to the school's "Trojan Spirit." They performed skits and many routines at pep assemblies and game half-times.

To utilize profits, made by various projects such as car washes and bake sales, the girls purchased new uniforms. Back again as the girls' mascot is Robin White.

INTRASCHOOL GAMES IMPROVE STRATEGY

Chess Club met during activity period on Thursdays in the gym lobby. The club was open to any person who wanted to improve their chess strategy and skill. In the Interschool Tournament members competed with one another for the championship. To earn money, even though they have no expenses, members sold concessions at various winter sporting events. Ms. Bastian is the sponsor.

TRI-HI-Y SERVES COMMUNITY NEEDS

Tri-Hi-Y, the girl's community service organization, kept in spirit this year by donating clothes, toys, and food to the Neighborhood Center at Thanksgiving and Christmas. To raise money, the girls held their annual Candy Drive in the fall. Part of this money was used to send a child to Camp Sunnyside. Guest speakers occupied most of the every other Wednesday meetings.

INVOLVEMENT IS DRAMA PASSWORD

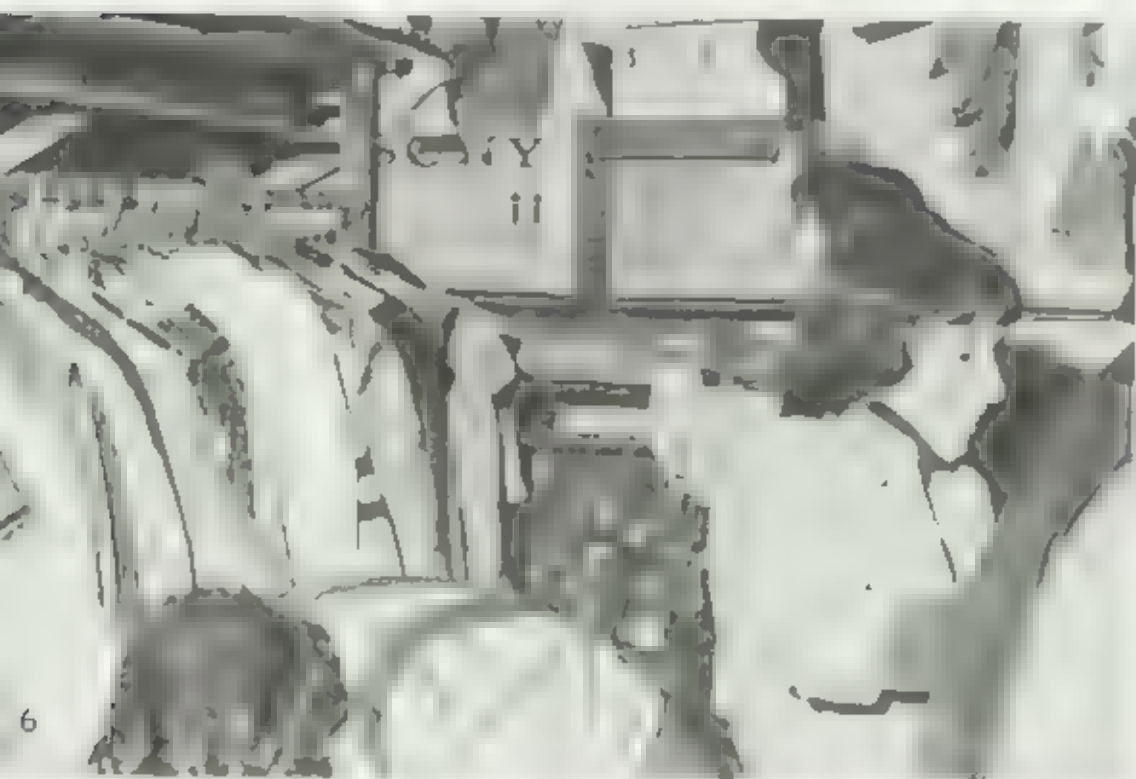

Thespians troupe 544 emphasized total student involvement in this year's two major productions. For Peter Pan, set construction, flying, and costumes required intense planning and hard work from the crews. The Crucible, however, was the first stark drama presented by FHS in years and so relied more on acting and directing than on technical aspects.

Students directed five one-act plays in an experimental learning situation for Thespians. After a few weeks of practice, "She Stoop to Conquer" directed by Tom Graber, and Paula Leacox was chosen as the contest play, earning Division I at district and state contests. "The Kallyope" a choral reading selection, and "Lemonade", duet acting, also received I ratings at district and state contest.

INSTRUMENTALISTS PLAY IN CONCERTS

Highlighting the winter season were the band's two public performances. The pop concert, held in January, featured contemporary jazz pieces. Another performance followed in March.

Three band members were selected to perform in the Southeast Iowa Honor Band this year: Leigh Ann Coop, clarinet; Jim Edgeton, trumpet; and Myron Gookin, snare drum. Jim was also chosen to play in the All Iowa Honor Band.

Private lessons during free periods replaced sectional practices in an effort to stress individual development.

1. Mr. Prill leads the band in the school song. 2. Student teacher Vito Bellardinelli worked with the band from Oct. to Dec., 1973. 3. Jim Edgeton performs the solo part in "A Trumpeters Lullabye."

BANDSMEN SUPPORT SCHOOL ENTHUSIASM

Football season kept the band busy learning pre-game routines and halftime shows. Improving with experience, bandsmen and twirlers climaxed the season with the Pleasant Valley trip, where they presented the first away halftime show.

During the winter season, the entire band formed three pep bands that alternately played at basketball games and wrestling meets. Twirlers performed as soloists or in groups throughout the season.

Marching practice began again in late April as the band prepared for the Pella Tulip Festival. Bandsmen participated in the two parade and the mass band.

FHS STAGE BAND HAS ACTIVE YEAR

During its third year, the stage band had a full schedule of performances. In December the group prepared to attend a clinic at Augustana College, but a large snowstorm cancelled the trip. Members did participate in a clinic at Washington Iowa, in March.

A Jazz Concert, held February 25, was a community experiment. It featured the FHS Stage Band, the Boy's Barbershop Quartet, and the 34th Division Army Band in a public performance that explored jazz from ragtime to rock.

The stage band performed for juniors and senior high school students in several concerts throughout the year. This group also entertained at the Chamber of Commerce's Annual Award Banquet and for other community organizations.

FNC ENCOURAGES HEALTH CAREERS

Stimulating interest for further education in any medical field was the purpose of the Future Nurses Club. In order to accomplish that, F.N.C. sponsored the Hospital Career Day and held regular meetings featuring guest speakers, films, and skits. Members also were responsible for the school nurses office during their free periods.

Dues and a bake sale financed the clubs activities for the year. These included the fall initiation picnic and the pizza party held after Christmas caroling at the Nelson Home.

The club sponsor was Ms. Jeanne Erickson.

FHA PROMOTES SERVICE PROJECTS

The Future Homemakers of America devoted much of their time to community service projects. For Valentine's Day they made favors for the nursing homes and the county home. They also sold concessions at athletic events. A joint pizza party with FNC highlighted the holidays.

Changed from the past, girls do not have to take a semester of Home Ec to be a member of FHA.

FFA BOYS DONATE TIME AND ENERGY

FFA members devoted much of their time to community service projects. They gave Christmas trees to elementary schools and set out pine trees for a farmer.

During National FFA week the boys held a pancake breakfast at both the Junior High and High School for respective faculties. As a result of district competition Pres. Dan Frieberg advanced to state competition in his field of public speaking.

The chapter held its meetings the 2nd Tuesday night of the month and officers met during activity periods on Mondays. For recreation the young farmers sponsored the annual Watermelon Bust for Greenhands and the Barnwarming.

FHS CLUBS SERVE SCHOOL AND TOWN

The Audio-Visual Club benefited the school and the community by providing equipment and trained operators wherever they were needed. Members were assigned to the A-V room during study halls and were responsible for the operation and minor maintenance of equipment. Certain members were selected to be responsible for the Lions Travelogues and other community functions.

Financial Managers served their school by taking tickets, making change, and handing out programs at all sports activities. In compensation they received a free activity ticket and honors such as a letter and pins. They held meetings weekly and planned a picnic for the end of the year.

Library Aides helped to maintain the orderliness of the library by cataloging magazines and books. However, their purpose, working with people to help them, was met when they aided students with reference materials.

Fiestas Enliven Spanish Culture

Los Gringos underwent a reorganization this year and emerged with drive and initiative. They used Spanish cheers at a boys' and girls' basketball game and a wrestling meet. Christmas caroling in Spanish highlighted the holidays. At a chili party and a saint's day party students improved their knowledge of the Spanish language and customs. To finish the year, Los Gringos and French Club held a language week which featured skits and observance of customs.

Fiestas Avivan Cultura Español

Los Gringos hacía varios cambios en organización este año y emergía con iniciativa. Aplaudían en español a los juegos de basquetbol para los muchachos y las muchachas y al partido de luchar a brazo. Cantando las canciones por Navidad chispeaba los días de fiestas. A una tertulia con chili con carne y a una en el día de un santo, alumnos mejoraban su conocimiento de la lengua y las costumbres de España. Terminar el año, Los Gringos y el club francés tenían una semana de lenguas que destacaba parodias y observancias de costumbres.

French Club Has New Instructor

French Club opened its second year with a new instructor, Ms. Linda Brown. She organized lectures on France and its art and music for club meetings. Christmas celebrations included a progressive Christmas dinner and the singing of French carols. Members also produced a French play and participated in the language week in the spring. A summer picnic finished the year.

Cercle Francais A Nouveau Matre

Le cercle francais a ouvert sa deuxième année avec un nouveau professeur, Mlle. Linda Brown. Elle organisait des conférences sur la France et son art et musique pour les réunions du club. Les fêtes de Noël ont compris un dîner de Noël à la francaise avec des cantiques de Noël. Les membres ont aussi réalisé une pièce en francais et ils ont participé à la semaine des langues du printemps. Une pique-nique en été a eu lieu à la fin de l'année.

TWO CLUBS AID IN PROMOTING SPIRIT

Mixed Nuts, a group who tried to combat school apathy, had a large effect on school spirit. With their outlandish dress, the group of 27 male cheerleaders sat together at football and basketball games and did their best to support the teams. They also appeared at the Christmas Talent Show and sponsored a pep assembly.

Pep Club sponsored pep buses to games to aid in promoting spirit. They decorated the halls with encouragement and also hosted a pep assembly. To raise funds members sold plastic glasses.

NEW COACH LEADS TROJANS IN '73

Coached for the first time by Jim Peterson, the Trojans, playing an enlarged schedule of 36 games placed 5th with a record of 7 wins and 13 losses.

Retaining only 5 starters from last season, the Fairfield Ball Club ended its season with an overall record of 13 wins and 23 losses.

Bob Hoffman, a 1973 graduate, achieved the highest batting average of the season with a .337. Hoffman was also named Most Valuable Player for the 1973 season.

Although the season was a disappointing one for the Boys' Cross Country team, they managed to place 3rd in Conference action. The boys also placed 13th in the state. Dave Hall, returning letterman, and captain of this year's squad, ran his best mile in 5:03 and his best 2 mile in 11:02. Tim Hellkamp followed with times of 5:15 and 11:39. Both Dave Hall and Mark Kistler were able to letter this season.

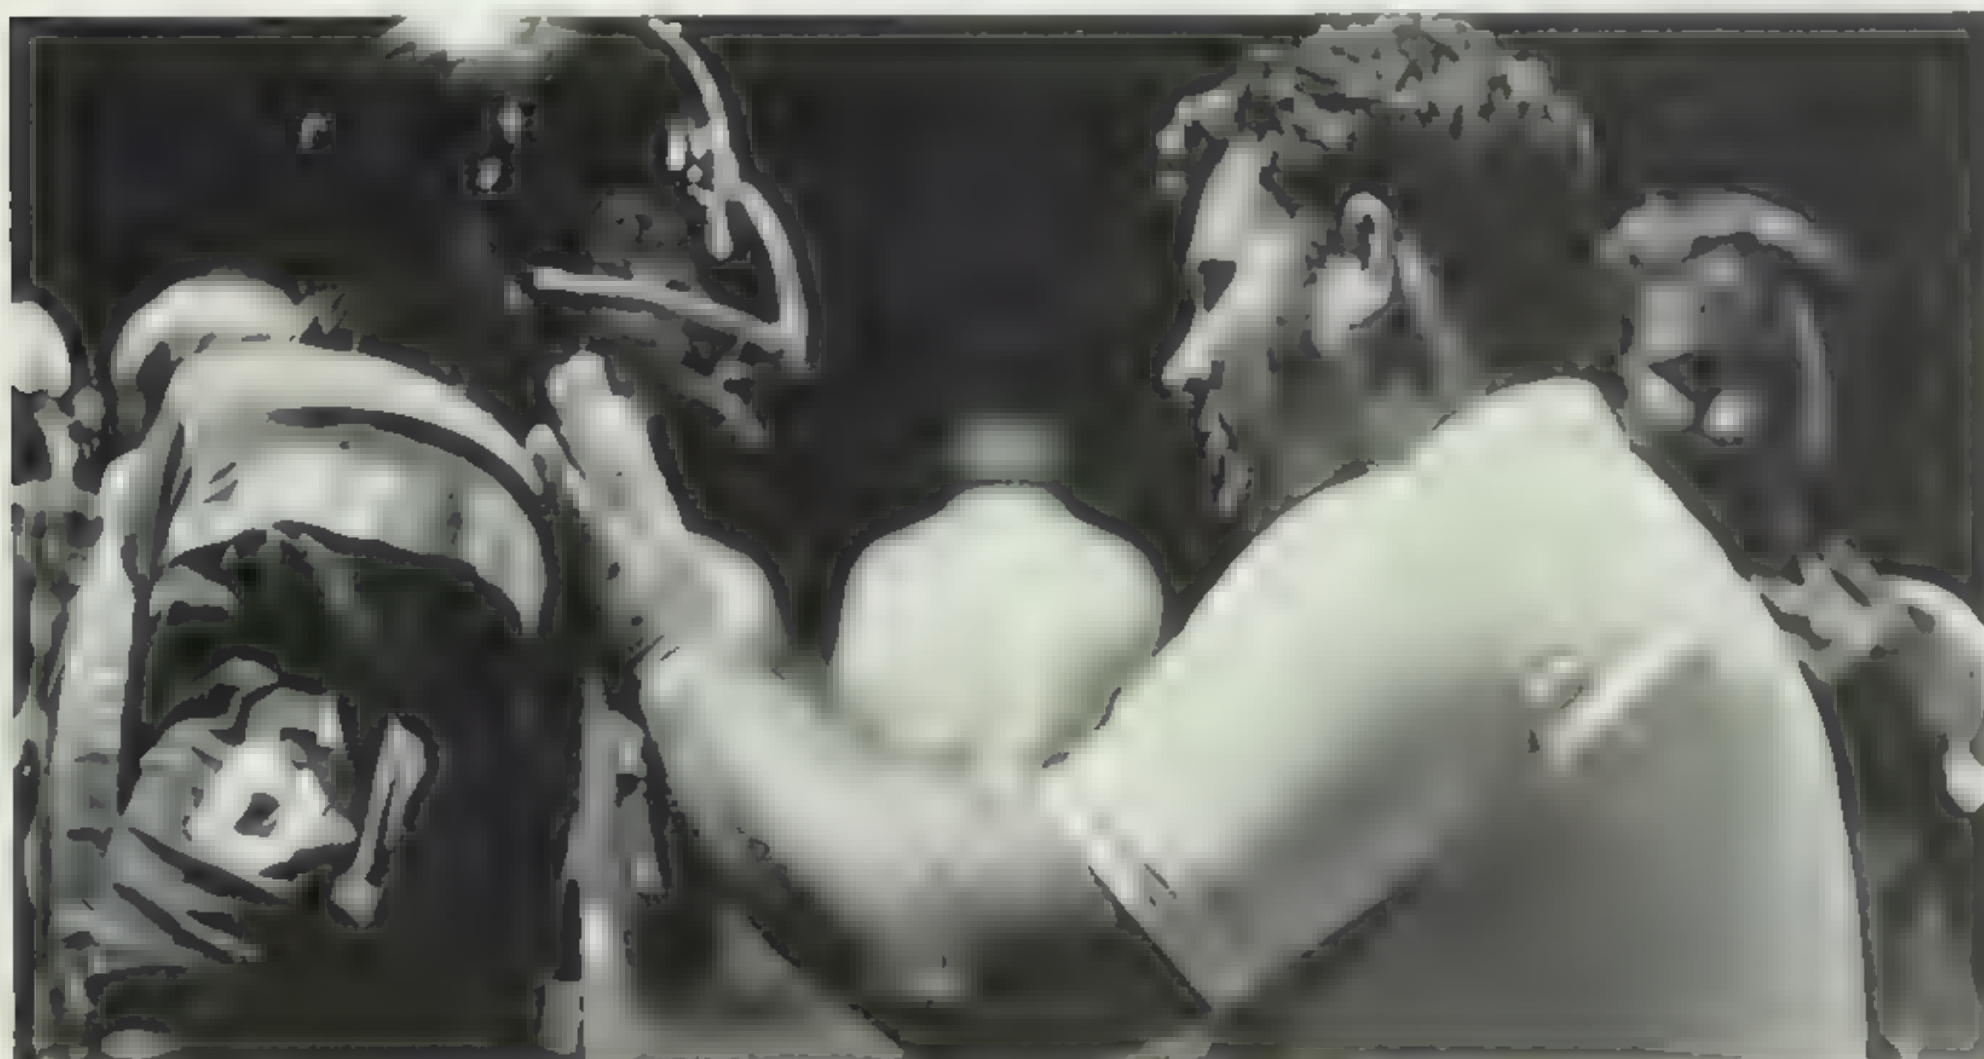

Holly Harward in this year's top action led the Girls' Cross Country team in 2 impressive wins over Keota. Holly and Cindy Briggs, a junior high student, both lettered this season.

IMPROVED SEASON FOR TROJANS

The Trojans took to the air during their 1973 football season as they fired their way to a 3rd place in the conference with a 3-2 conference standing and an overall 4-5 record.

The early season rains proved hazardous to the Trojan's passing, but they recovered when the weather cleared and racked up a total of 172 points compared to their opponents 156.

Quarterback Kyle Gilpin passed 252 times for 122 completions. Main receivers for Gilpin's tosses were Dennis Roland and Jon Franklin. Leading rushers for the Trojans were Larry Holmes, Butch Melton, and Mike Bartruff. Doug Miller led the defense in tackles with 81 stops. Securing a position on the 1st All-Conference team were Gilpin and Roland, with Lonnie Myers and Franklin being named to the 2nd team. Gilpin was later named All-State 4th team quarterback.

SOPHS COMPILE PERFECT SEASON

Though Mother Nature attempted several times to dampen the spirits of the Sophomore team with her heavy rains and muddy fields, she was no match for the high morale of the Trojan squad this year as they pushed through the season with a clean 8-0 record.

Ron Lamansky was the teams leading rusher with 1045 yards. Steve Smith completed 59% of his passes, 17 of these being touchdowns, for 1267 yards. The sophs averaged 400 yards total offense each game.

The little Trojans were led by Herb Justmann, in his first year as head coach.

LONG NAMED ALL S.E. 7 2ND TEAM

Junior center, Andy Long at 6'3", was named to the second team All-Southeast Seven Conference for the 1973-74 Trojan Basketball season. He was the only Fairfielder named on the 13 man pick, which included six first teamer. Long led FHS in rebounding and was the team's second leading scorer.

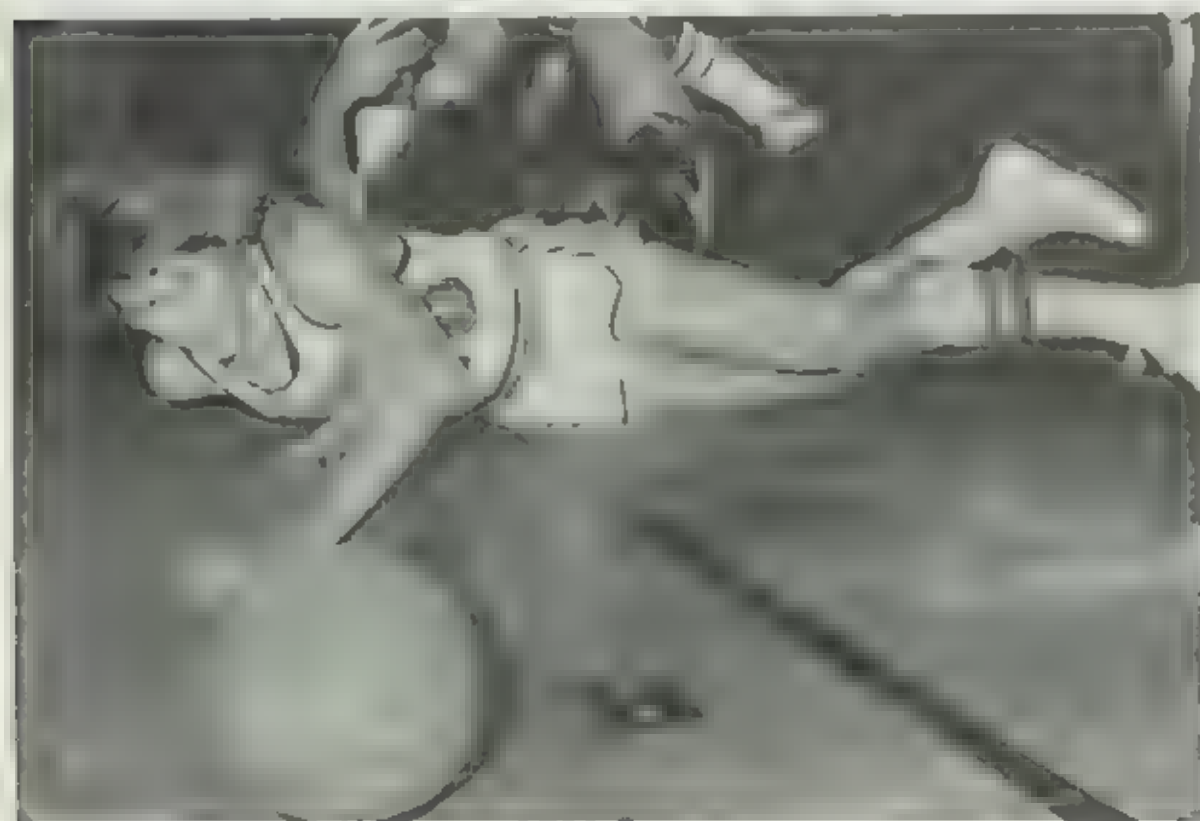

Leading the Trojans in scoring for the season was senior guard John Forbes, who collected 193 points for a 14.8 average.

Other players who gained over a hundred points during the season were Kyle Gilpin, Dennis Roland, and Dave Hall.

Long was also the most accurate shooter from the field making 45.5%. The top free thrower was guard Terry Oosthoek, who averaged 67.5% from the line.

Of the top nine varsity players only Forbes, Hall, and Oosthoek will graduate, joined by five other seniors on the 19-man squad. Long, Gilpin, and Roland are part of the seven juniors who should return next season, along with three sophomores who have already had some varsity experience.

PROMISING FUTURE FOR SOPH CAGERS

Despite a 4-14 record posted this season by the FHS sophomores, under coach Art Hutton, the future looks promising for next years Varsity Basketball Team. Eight of its losses were by a total of 19 points, one by 3 and one by 4 points. Defense was a big reason the Sophs lost most of their games since their offense and rebounding were relatively strong.

Leading the Sophomores in almost every category was center Gary Liles. Liles 6'4" averaged 15.8 points and 11.6 rebounds per game, while shooting 50.2 per cent from the field. Although only playing 8 games Williams still finished fourth highest scorer with 116 points.

WRESTLERS TAKE SE 7 TITLE WITH PERFECT RECORD

This year brought about one of the most successful seasons for the Trojans who finished with a record of 11 wins and no losses, thus becoming the second team in wrestling history of FHS to be undefeated. Dominating conference action, the Trojan wrestling squad came through with a 500 record and thus captured the SE7 Conference title.

Fairfield advanced two on to state competition: heavyweight Mike Engwall and 98 pound Dan Glenn.

GIRLS ADVANCE TO VARSITY STANDING

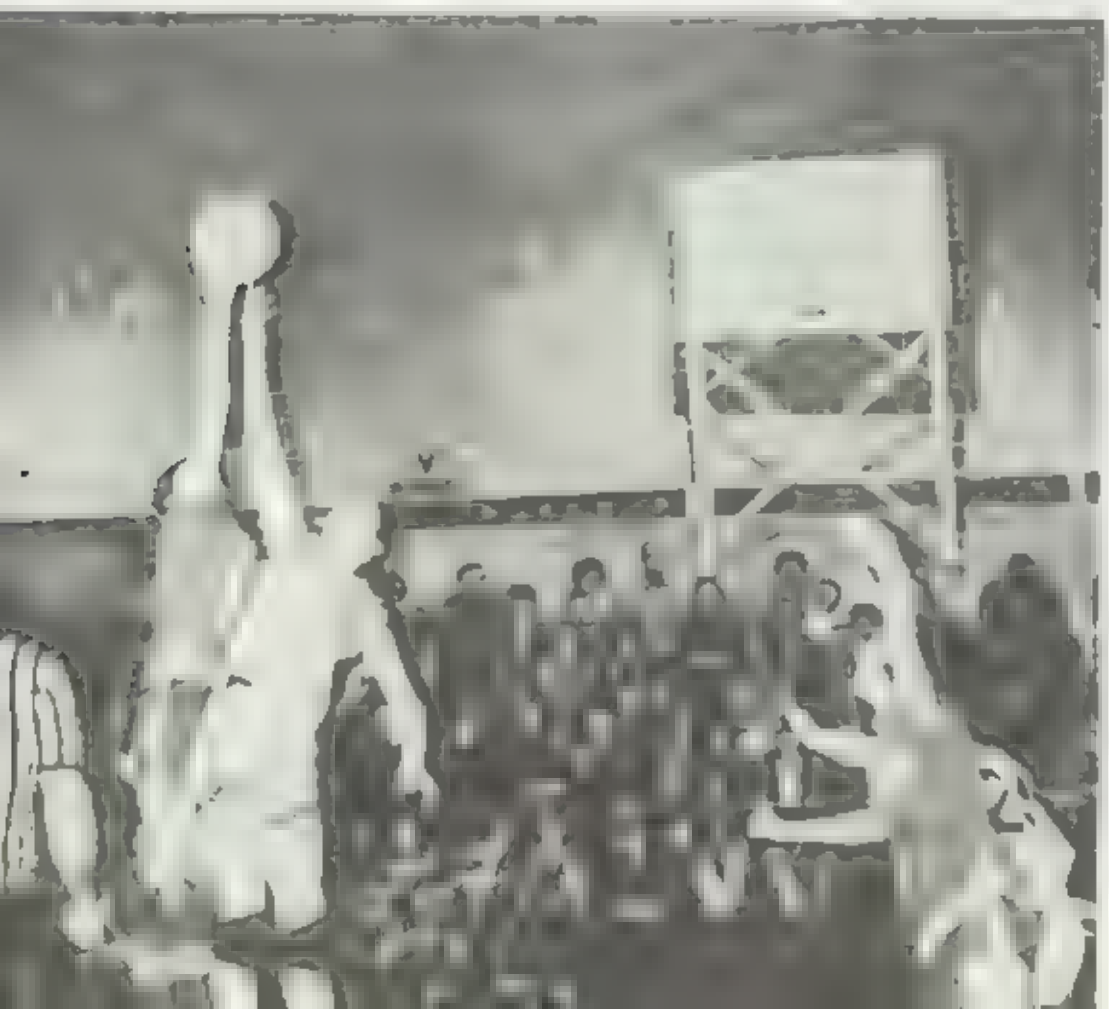

In their second year, the girls basketball team upset several established teams and compiled a hard-earned 9-10 record.

Defeating Cardinal and Fox Valley, both well-established girls teams, were some of the highlights of the season. While edged from 3 victories by only one or two points, the Trojanettes fared well against Pekin and Van Buren, two of their strongest foes. Their first 17 games followed a win-one-lose one pattern, which exemplified the team's ability to bounce back after defeat.

Scoring was led by freshman Nancy Bradley, with 378 points for the year, followed by Mary Ahrens. Bradley also broke a school record by scoring 40 points in one game.

Deb Dickinson led the guards with 143 rebounds, followed closely by Goldie Nicholson with 142.

GYMNASTICS SQUAD TOPPLES RECORDS

A broken school record and a clean sweep against Newton in all events were just part of the 1973-74 gymnastics season. The team ended their season by defeating Newton for a 3-7 record. Terri Wiseman broke the school record in all-around competition by scoring a total of 22.5 points in one meet. Wiseman held the high score in every event with these girls having the second high: Sabrina Smith, vaulting; Patti Mineart, balance beam; Leann Ferrel, tumbling and free floor exercise; Roxanne Pech, trampoline; and Jill Avaux, uneven parallel bars.

"THE CRUCIBLE" — MILLER

"The Crucible" is a story written about the witchcraft in Salem, Massachusetts, in the year 1692. Reverend Samuel Parris has just returned from Barbados with his slave girl, Tituba. She practices voodoo and gets some of the village girls to go dancing naked in the woods and to drink chicken's blood. When Mr. Parris catches them, the girls don't know what to do, so they blame it on witchcraft. They accuse the people of the village of hexing them and accuse them of witchery. Finally the girls get so wild they accuse the governor's wife. Salem finally realizes the girls are fakes but only after they have killed many people. The story is based on true happenings.

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Elections, Student Council activities, and honor awards kept students busy as everyone anticipated the end of the school year.

A week set aside for the American Foreign Exchange Students included a dance, dress sloppy day, an assembly, and the sale of AFS bonds. The sale was sponsored by Student Council to raise money for AFS.

The procedures of election of the student body president were changed this year. Instead of skits, the candidates debated before the student body with each candidate voicing his opinions to questions asked by the students. Dave Huff and Paul Konrady polled a victory over Ron Ridgeway and Larry Holmes.

Featuring slides depicting the school year, the spring Torch Club initiation tapped 19 new members in an assembly before the student body.

Mrs. Nelson took five excited students to Iowa City to compete in the National Merit State Spanish finals. They were among the top ten in the state.

Thespians attended a dinner at the Pzazz in Burlington where Mrs. Smart presented awards for the year.

GOLFERS PLACE 11th IN STATE COMPETITION

The 1973-74 golf team ended the season with an 11-1 record while finishing third in the conference, first in the district and eleventh in the state. Tom Louden, Streetar Cameron, and Ken Hovey led the team in the three best averages. The J.V. team also had a good season with a 9-1 record. Coach Wardlow was very proud of his team and felt that next year will be even better.

1. Ron Rehkopf shows good follow-through on his shot. 2. Golf Team: ROW 1: R. Wulff, T. Louden, S. Cameron, K. Hovey, J. Skeels, M. Nelson. ROW 2: D. Green, E. Higgins, M. Kramer, L. Bartruff, D. Wagner, R. Rehkopf, R. Wulff, Coach Wardlow.

The boys' tennis team had a winning season with an 11-3 record. Although, the team played with only two seniors the netmen dominated most of their opponents. The best over-all singles record was Frescoln with 14-5 and Gilpin had the best dual record with 12-2.

The girls' tennis team ended their season with a 3-8 record but Mr. Schenk was fairly satisfied. The top girl on the team was Dodds who raised last year's score of 5-5 to 8-3.

It was a slow season for both the girls and boys track teams. The girls came through with one first. The most consistent winner was Deb Dickinson, ranking second in the state in the shot put. Julie Dickinson also went to state in the 880. The two sisters were co-captains this year. The Trojanettes entered one event at the Drake Relays and the Ft. Madison Relays but they failed to place.

Butch Melton was the captain of the boys' track team doing the best individually with six firsts and five seconds. The boys had two entries in the Drake Relays but neither placed. Tom Crew broke the school record in the pole vault of 11'4" with 12'6" which he tied three more times.

TRACK TEAM IN REBUILDING SEASON

JR.-SR. PROM

The 1974 Junior-Senior Prom was held from 9:00 to 12:00 on Friday, May 24. This year's theme, "Caught in the Quiet", was carried out by the decorations designed and built by the Junior class. Couples entering the boys' gym crossed a bridge in the middle of two little pools. The focal point was a white summer house against one side of the gym. Floral and forest murals hung along the walls added to the outdoor feeling. Brass Unlimited from Cedar Rapids provided the music. The refreshment table offered punch, fruitcups and hors d'oeuvres.

1. Juniors pause during decorating to catch their breath. 2. Lauri McIndoe and Colli Brackey finish the bridge and pools. 3. After students had worked for hours, this fountain sprayed only a short time before breaking down. 4. Girls prepare a mural to hang on the wall. 5. Brass Unlimited provides music for dancing. 6. The table was well-stocked for the hungry and thirsty. 7. Pam McGuire and Jim Bozarth enjoy the punch. 8. A slow song provides a welcome release from the fast pace.

BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening, May 26, in the auditorium. After Rev. John Dilley gave the invocation, The Senior choir performed the song, "The Road Not Taken", which was also the motto of the class. Jim Edgeton played a trumpet solo. After Rev. Kermit Black read the scripture lesson, Rev. Wayne Bartruff presented the sermon, "Beware the Well-worn Path". Erlayne Gillaspie sang "Tho with the Tongues of Man", and Rev. Dean Berg presented the benediction.

1. The class of 1974 recesses from Baccalaureate. 2. A Mass of confusion forms as the seniors leave. 3. Erlayne Gillaspie sings a solo. 4. Terry Buford takes a moment to think during Baccalaureate. 5. Seniors gather together for the final time. 6. Tom Graber and Paula Leacox, two of the senior speakers, prepare their speeches for graduation. 7. H. Roy Larnsky presents Jim Bozarth with his diploma.

MOTTO

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveller, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth

Then took the other, just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
TWO ROADS DIVERGED IN A WOOD, AND I-
I TOOK THE ONE LESS TRAVELLED BY,
AND THAT HAS MADE ALL THE DIFFERENCE.
-Robert Frost

GRADUATION

On Thursday evening, May 30, at 8:00 the class of 1974 came together for the last time. The exercises, which were to be held outside, were moved to the auditorium at the last minute because of bad weather. The class marched in to Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstances." After Rev. Wayne Wilken delivered the invocation, the Chamber Singers performed "Sing to God" by Felter. John Taylor read "The Road Not Taken" from which the motto is an excerpt. After the speakers were presented, Mr. H. Roy Lamansky awarded the diplomas. Bishop Russell Rauscher gave the benediction. Then the members of the class of 1974 followed their own roads.

A LAST LOOK

1. This student utilizes every moment of spring, as vacation beckons. 2. On their last day physics students ponder how goldfish got in this distilled water. 3. Brad Stover and Cheryl Pattison return from one of the last long lunches before school ends. 4. Monica Herr performs the limbo at the 50's dance. 5. Our apologies to Ralph and Stan whose senior pictures were omitted from the main book.

And now the song has ended - quiet falls
And I am left still wandering the halls
Of reverie, lost in my fruitless quest
Of half-remembered things locked in my breast
What is it that song awakes in me?
Almost a tear - almost a memory

Heleen Lowrie Marshall
